Message from the Bishop’s Desk:

The Holy Father in his Lenten message for 2018 has referred to the Gospel of Matthew 24:12, “because of the increase of iniquity, the love of many will grow cold.” My dear brothers and sisters, we are living in an age where it wouldn’t be wrong to say that the love of many has grown cold. There is hatred, jealousy, violence, greed, disloyalty and disharmony in every part of the world. Perhaps in our own homes and hearts too. However, inspite of this human coldness we are loved unconditionally by a Father who “gave His only begotten Son” that whosoever believes in him should not perish but have life everlasting. “John 3:16. This Lenten season beckons each one of us to rekindle the fire of love in our hearts and to turn to God who is ever merciful. Unless we rend our hearts we cannot experience the joy of Christ’s resurrection. This season should enable us to walk one day at a time with Jesus by whose blood we are cleansed and made anew. We should spend more time in prayer so that we can hear God speaking to us. Almsgiving in the form of service or even a kind word or gesture towards another will bring us closer as a community. It helps us to overcome greed when we care about our fellow beings out of love. Fasting awakens is spiritually and “makes us more attentive to God and our neighbours. It revived our desire to obey God who alone is capable of satisfying our hunger.” (Pope Francis)

I therefore call upon you to make this Lenten season a meaningful time to reflect and prepare ourselves for Easter. I reiterate the words of the Holy Father as he urges the members of the Church “to take up the Lenten joy with enthusiasm, sustained by aims giving, fasting and prayer. If at times the flame of charity seems to die in our own hearts, know that this is never the case in the heart of God! He constantly gives us a chance to begin loving anew. “God bless you!”

Oh what a Merciful Lord!

The Crown of thorns,
The scourged flesh,
The pierced side, the drawn nails,
On a Cross for all to see,
The Son of God took it all for me.
Grace abounding, mercy overflowing,
Forgiveness unceasing,
Love abiding
For a sinner like me.
Laid in The tomb cold,
The mystery of the stone rolled,
Eternal life and Salvation bestowed
All for a sinner like me.
